Preface

Bismillah

It was a hard journey. Everyone wants to learn Arabic; to understand Quran. I was unable to continue study of Arabic from my time in UET Lahore, back in 2002. It was always a dream and desire to understand the words of Allah SWT directly in Arabic. But some priorities kept me busy. Later in 2010, I got introduced to my first Arabic Teacher Dr Abdul Rehman Sb (Sautul Quran, Islamabad, now Al-Amanah Foundation). Their I started learning Arabic Grammar. It is a real truth that even after 3 weeks of personal revision I couldnt get Nouns, Verbs and Adjectives together (with their sub types) to just understand Surah Al-Fateha. Two months later, at Al-Fawz Academy I started 3 weeks full time course on Arabic Grammar by Sheikh Khalil Chisti Sb and Sheikh Mohammad Minhas Khan Sb. The course ended, and it was tough; but yet retained 60% of it! There, a Colleague from Canada introduced me to the course of Dr Abdur Rahim (Madina Univerity) "Daroosul Lughatul Arabiya". Any ways later again I continued with Sautul Quran and also Sheikh M. Minhas Sb with "Daroosul Lughatul Arabiya".
"Daroosul Lughatul Arabiya" is a very good course, which teaches Grammar with Literature in parallel. But it is not that beneficial in Pakistan, versus in KSA. In KSA you get to practice, in Pakistan you have to practice on your own.
Later, a friend same year, introduced me to Dr Ubaidur Rehman Bashir Sb (Mahad Lughatul Arabiya Islamabad, Professor IIU). He pushed me to join and take a demo class. I wasnt convinced by the Demo Class... but still he insisted so I enrolled. I did my Part-1 and passed in 3 months. But the Grammar I had studied previously blocked me from oral and literature.
"Arabic Grammar should never be studied by any starter student. It has only 2% success rate in Pakistan!!! This explains why Madaris Scholars couldnt bring any change in Pakistan..."
The journey continued to Part-2 and luckily some Sheikhs of IIU (Jamia Al-Azhar) visited our local mosque at G-11. I would join their gatherings. I couldnt communicate properly, but still they were very nice and pleasant to try to teach me. My vocal Arabic lagged badly; because Grammar instills rules over language.

I recall I joke: where I wanted to say I was finding you my Teacher, but said I will cut you!!! (Later I really couldnt look at my ownself...). But the Sheikh was very friendly "and caring and understood", and corrected me without being harsh.
In the mean while my half class failed the next test at Mahad in Part-2. So we repeated, as Sir Ubaid again pushed us. Positive Motivation has its go... so we cleared upto Level-2 and at that point some where I was watching a video and understood the Idiom of "Laa Ilaala". It is not a phrase but idiom. Most people in Pakistan, actually dont understand it through mere translation. For the next three days I was quite in shock. Any ways, now Quran understanding in parallel had begun. I joined Level-3 of Mahad, but left it as they focussed on a Book of Hadith over Literature. My focus was to find a Teacher to help me in Literature. So I joined Sir Abu Zubair, who helped me a lot in his spare time, and pushed me up. In 2012 I met Dr Ghouri Sb (IIU), and he invited me to join his classes at IIU. Twice a week I went. He is one of the top best Teachers of Arabic Language in Pakistan. So my Arabic started to really improve. I under went some breaks in between, but it continued ... language learning may take upto 3/4 years for an average person. It also depends on how much one practices!
The IIU Course of Dr Ismael Seeni is an excellent course, but requires a proper Teacher to help you go through it! Actually it is just like you learned Urdu or English. But squeezed and shortened a bit.
In the mean while I also started to teach Arabic Language.

"Strength in Arabic Language is something else. Strength in Quran is something else." Some of the Fiqah explained by different Scholars wasnt compatible to Quran, especially the Nimaz of Tahajjud, etc. The book "Macro Structure of Quran - by Sh. Khalil Chisti Sb" and likewise does not actually teach Quran. They are mere adaptations of Tafseers of Quran! Again and again I would iterate to Dr Imaduddin (my Mahad Colleague), that we are not understanding Quran properly, there is no Teacher. They only teach Tafseer. Even Allama Inayatulah Khan Mashraqi [Reh-A] (one of the Pakistans top expert on Quran and Arabic), teaches Quran through a heavy rewritten Tafheem. It amounts to a heavy Tafseer. No method existed to revise Quran or understand it in 4 to 7 days; as quoted in Ahadith.

Till 2019, I wasnt introduced to any Teacher capable of teaching Quran, directly in Urdu or English or Arabic. Then I got introduced to Shahid Bhatti Sb, Tufail Center (an independent training Center for Quran House Society of Dr. Khawar Butt Sb). He has a remarkable course of only 16 to 36 hours to teach minimal-istic Arabic Grammar of Quran and understanding of Quran Ayats. This is the most fastest, shortest and efficient course. Still it lacks to connect and understand Quran as a whole. They mostly rely on Tafseers.

Any Tafseer doesnt actually teach you Quran. 99.9% people cannot teach Quran further (whilst Quran claims opposite). I took lectures of many Scholars. My Students or friends who read Tafaseers, complained that you may finish Tafseer even 10 times, but cannot understand Quran. It forgets!!!

In start of 2020 I got to meet Sheikh M. Ameen Sb. Now here the real journey started... to actually understand Quran. Al-HamduLillah Allah SWT opened the way. He wasnt an expert on Arabic Language, but showed a way to understand Quran, directly from Quran translation. Just like above eureka method of Dr Khawar Butt Sb, this Method of Connected Topics is also an eureka!

He advised me to converge his technique to Arabic Grammar of Dr Khawar Butt Sb, to offer people both the options, in one go. First class was hard and the class dropped, but then Allah SWT enlightened a way to teach both courses in a narrow time span of just 90 hours (Fehme Quran with Quranic Arabic). The outcome: our Student is exactly capable to the extend of any Madrassah qualified Scholar. But I shall add: "Better"... Al-Hamdulillah. Why? 1) "He understands Quran", 2) "because he can teach further also by 95% probability, whilst other methods arent this capable!" 3) "He can translate and verify translations of others, himself." 4) "He can easily learn Arabic Literature, further."

We also continue to teach the 50-Hours course for the people, who dont want to learn the Grammar, but are interested in the understanding of Quran only. Both ways one learns, but for Arabic Learning, one needs to struggle more. It takes its time.

I hope that people realize that all answers are written in Quran; and children must learn Arabic Language also. As Dr Ubaid iterates: Only teach urdu in schools till class 5; start to teach Arabic and English with Urdu from class 6 level. A child can learn and master the base of these both languages in 7 years upto Inter Level, easily; if taught properly.

Hopefully our Muslim Sisters would learn and teach further to their children. In Shaa Allah it shall boost the understanding of Quran in Pakistan, within next few years.

In Shaa Allah one day, Pakistan will fulfill the dream of Allama Iqbal of "Islamic Pakistan". Ameen.

I shall be thankful to our volunteers, supporters and students of Al-Munawar Cloud Campus, to remain a part of our programs. May Allah SWT accept our deeds. Ameen.

[Method of Topics / Method of Connected Sections:]

This unique methodology of training-cum-teaching, was practiced by Ayma Arbaa (Imaam Abu Hanifa, Imaam Shaafi-ee, Imaam Ahmad Bin Hanbal, Imaam Malik) Reh-Ajma-een, Imaam Jafer Reh-A and many other pious Scholars of Islam. They didnt wrote books of Fiqah or books of Tafseer or books of Taaveels. This is a converged understanding of Quran by Connected and Relating Sections; highlighting the main theme of every connected section. This is the real understanding or Fehem of Quran, as Quran explains Quran itself. This course is extremely short as we teach Quran directly by deriving the Exact Translation, and 40 hours minimal-istic Easy Grammar Course, using one dictionary.

All Pious Imams Reh-Ajma-een of the starting era, were infact Teacher-Student to each other!

This special course is adapted from the works of Syed Modudi Reh-A, Ameen Islahi Reh-A, Syed Suleiman Nadvi Reh-A, Anayatullah Khan Mashraqi Reh-A and Dr Israr Ahmed Reh-A, shortened precisely to understand in a minimal time span, the understanding of Islam similar to Imam Jaffer Reh-A and Imam Abu Hanifa Reh-A.

This is the fastest, shortest and easiest method to understand Quran. You can easily revise 3 times in Ramzan and feel the difference from all other methods!!!
